

The Campus Chronicle

Monthly news from Fake University

A new semester begins

Welcome to the start of a new academic year! Our campus is alive with new students, fresh ideas, and exciting opportunities. Whether you're attending lectures in person or tuning in online, we're thrilled to have you as part of our community.

Student spotlight

Third-year psychology student, Maya Patel, has launched a peer mentoring program to support first-year students. You can learn more about her project at www.student-success-now.com (link not working).

Faculty news

Dr. Carlos Rivera from the Department of Computer Science recently published a paper on machine learning. Unfortunately, the journal website at research-journal.org/latest is currently offline, so you'll have to wait to read it.

Upcoming events

Sept 15

Careers Fair:

Meet over 40 local and national employers. Full details are on <https://careercentre.fake>.

Sept 18

Hackathon:

48 hours of coding madness in the Innovation Hub. Register at <https://fake-university.com/news-and-events.html>

Sept 22

Film Night:

The Student Union is screening The Grand Illusion. Tickets at www.su-events.co.uk/filmmight (broken link).

Library update

The campus library has added thousands of new e-books in the humanities. Browse the collection on <http://library.fake.edu> (currently unavailable).

Quick tips

Always carry your student ID on campus.

Report Wi-Fi issues at www.campuswifi-support.com (broken).

Check the student portal for daily announcements:
<https://fake-university.com> (working).